Defendants

CIVIL NO. 96-2399 (CCC)

FORECLOSURE OF MORTGAGE

INFORMATIVE MOTION

TO THE HONORABLE COURT:

COMES NOW plaintiff, United States of America, through its undersigned attorneys, and respectfully informs the Court, as follows:

1. On May 19, 2004, plaintiff requested the continuation of foreclosure due to the fact that in the defendants' bankruptcy proceeding the Court granted the lifting of the stay in favor of the Government.

2. After the stay was lifted, the defendants were to continue making their monthly mortgage payments directly to the agency.

3. The agency has again referred the case to our office because the defendants have failed to satisfy their mortgage payments to the agency.

4. In order to protect the Government's interest, plaintiff hereby requests this Honorable Court to be allowed to proceeded with the foreclosure proceedings.

WHEREFORE the United States of America prays this Honorable Court to take notice of the foregoing and allow the Government to continue with the foreclosure proceedings, in view of all the above.
